Corporation's Biography

The Northern California Minority Junior Golf Association is a non-profit Public Benefit corporation, raising funds to enhance participation of minority youth in organized golf. The association provides financial assistance to college-bound minority students who have demonstrated the desire and will to develop their golf skills and achieve academic excellence.

Corporation's Mission Statement

Our mission is to enrich not only the lives of minority, underprivileged, and at risk youths, but all youths in the Greater Sacramento Metropolitan Area by exposing them to positive social experiences that promotes character development and inspirational values through a collegiate academic education and the wonderful game of golf.

Corporation's Motto
